Willie Kay a former speedway and circuit driver, a car owner and Indy Car crew man, was a Director of Speedway NZ for eleven years, and promoter of Western Springs and Baypark tracks for nineteen years. Willie has escorted motorsport tours including Indianapolis 500, Formula One Grand Prix, vintage car events, V8 super cars, major speedway races and aviation events for thirty five years. Motorsport in its many facets has been his life and work, and Willie takes no greater pleasure than in sharing his experience, knowledge and contacts for the benefit of tour members.

Indy 500 2018 Package

No other motor sports facility in the world has the rich history and tradition of the Indianapolis Motor Speedway and "The Greatest Spectacle In Racing" which continues with the 102nd running of the Indy 500 on Sunday May 27th 2018. The Indy 500 is a showcase of achievement, providing unprecedented action, thrills, speed and spills. The quest for innovation, more skill, more speed and glory will explore the limits of man and machine. The city of Speedway comes alive with supporting events in support of this historic icon of auto racing. The largest gathering of people on earth, the richest motor race in the world and the largest single day sporting event makes this race a spectacle not to be missed. Join me for an insider's experience and the trip of a lifetime, at the 102nd running of the Indy 500.

WEDNESDAY 23 MAY

Visit the Indianapolis Motor Speedway, tour the Hall of Fame Museum, take a lap around the track and visit the souvenir stands. This evening visit Terre Haute for the "Tony Hulman Classic" USAC Sprint Cars and supporting events on the Half Mile dirt track.

THURSDAY 24 MAY

Visit the motor racing shops and points of interest in the Indianapolis area. You will get an insider's view of an Indy Car work shop, visit a private racing car collection, the Indianapolis Museum restoration shop and other points of interest. Visit gasoline alley and the garage area, see the famed Indy 500 track for the Freedom 100 practice and qualifying. This evening attend the Silver Crown Hoosier 100 race at the Indianapolis State Fairgrounds.

FRIDAY 25 MAY

Carburation Day. This is the last chance for the final chassis tuning for the Indy Cars and is a great opportunity to watch the action. Following the Indy Car practice the Indy Lights cars race for 40 laps in the Freedom 100. At the completion of the Freedom 100 race, the Indy Car teams hold their Pit Stops competition, competing for US$50,000. This evening attend the USAC Silver Crown Cars and supporting races on the 5/8 mile paved oval at Indianapolis Raceway Park.

SATURDAY 26 MAY

Pre-race festivities for the Indy 500 begin with Legends Day at the Indy track including vintage race car displays and autograph sessions. Attend the public Indy 500 drivers meeting then watch the parade through downtown. The second largest parade in the USA this event reflects America's love of parades and it is a spectacle well worth watching. In the evening attend the 67th running of the Little 500 on the 1/4 mile high banked paved oval at Anderson Speedway. Thirty three non-winged sprint cars start three wide for 500 laps in this "mini" Indy race that has become a tradition and a fitting climax for the build up to the Indy 500.

SUNDAY 27 MAY

The day we have all been waiting for, the highlight of the Tour, the INDIANAPOLIS 500

Gates open at 6.00am and pre-race ceremonies including a spectacle of bands, a vintage race car demonstration, celebrity introductions, driver introductions, renditions of "America the Beautiful", "God Bless America", the United States National Anthem, the Invocation, the playing of the "Taps" and a military fly over provide the entertainment until "drivers to your cars" at 12.06pm, followed by the singing of "Back Home Again in Indiana". The command "start your engines" is given at 12.17pm and the green flag waves for the start of the race at 12.20pm. For the next three hours watch the greatest spectacle of motor racing. Grandstand seats that we believe to be the best in the house have been reserved for you.

MONDAY 28 MAY

Rain day for the Indy 500. In the evening we are privileged to attend the official Indy 500 Victory Awards Celebration Banquet. Join celebrities, former drivers, sponsors and team owners to hear the Indy 500 drivers make their acceptance speeches as they receive their prize money cheques and awards. More than US $13 million is distributed at this exclusive event which is televised live and is a great ending to the tour. A table has been reserved for tour members. Business attire (jacket & tie recommended).
